Wednesday, May 9:

Dress Rehearsal

5-8:00pm: Levels 3-8 & C1-C4

Dressing rooms open at 4:30pm

- > Finale rehearsal will begin promptly at 5:00pm. Dances will then be run in show order
- > After each piece is run, an in-costume class photo will be taken on stage

In order to run an efficient and safe rehearsal, we ask that families who wish to watch rehearsal remain in the audience until the intermission pause or the end of rehearsal.

While rehearsal is in process, backstage is for the dancers only.

Parents are not required to stay during rehearsal.

For your dancer's safety, they must stay at Dress Rehearsal until designated pick-up times

- > Level 3 dancers may be picked up from their dressing room as soon as they are done rehearsing their pieces. Level 3 families please do not go into audience if you are leaving before intermission.
- > We will pause at intermission, any dancers who have rehearsed all their pieces by this point in the show may be picked up. *This is for dress rehearsal ONLY, during the actual shows dancers levels 4 and up MUST stay in their dressing rooms for the entire show!
- > Dancers who have pieces in the second half must stay until the end of rehearsal.
- > Dancers are welcome to stay for entire rehearsal even if they finish rehearsing their pieces in first half of the show, however they must stay in their dressing room!

Specific times for intermission pick-up along with show order will be detailed in a future email!

To maintain privacy only dancers and volunteers are allowed in the dressing rooms during rehearsal. Dancers may be picked up at the back-stage outside door, Kenny will be there to assist. Dressing room volunteers will be helping coordinate when dancers can go upstairs for pick-up, make sure your dancer knows when they are being picked up!
